RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR EXHIBITING CAROLE NASH IRISH MOTORBIKE & SCOOTER SHOW 2019

1. All Stands must be finished to an acceptable standard. No unfinished walls or partitions should be visible. Stands may not be designed or erected in such a way as to disadvantage another exhibitor.
2. Your attention is drawn to "Conditions for the Supply of Electricity" outlined on page 16 of this manual.
3. Exhibitors not availing of the standfitting package are required to submit a copy of the plan for their stand at least three weeks before the commencement of stand build-up. Please advise your standfitting contractor of this requirement.
4. No signs, graphic panels, banners or other exhibits or display equipment may be fixed or attached to any part of the building. All displays must be free standing or attached to an adequate display system or structure.
5. Work on all stands must be completed not later than the evening before the exhibition opens. No work, erection, decoration or wiring may be undertaken on stands once the exhibition is open.
6. Only fire retardant materials may be used in the construction of exhibition stands. All timber, hardboard, plywood or similar material must be rendered flame retardant by an acceptable method of impregnation and must have certificates to prove this. Fireproof certificates are also required for all stand dressings such as drapes, furniture etc. Exhibitors are particularly reminded that foam or rubber back carpet is NOT permitted and the fire officer will only permit fire resistant carpet tiles and fire proofed carpet to be used in exhibitions. All carpets and carpet tiles used on exhibition stands must have a certificate to state that they conform to fireproof standards BS4790. GAS Bottles are NOT permitted in the hall.
7. Your attention is drawn to the performing rights charges imposed by IMRO on the playing of music or promotional videos with music sound tracks. See IMRO details towards the back of this manual.
8. Excessive noise or loudspeakers are not permitted where these cause interference with other stands.
9. Exhibitors are not permitted to hand out leaflets at the entrances or in the gangway spaces outside of their stand area, or to place leaflets on cars in the vicinity of the exhibition.
10. We regret that the use of the Public Address System is restricted to emergency use and necessary show announcements.
11. In the interest of security, fire doors may not be used by exhibitors once the exhibition is in operation.
12. Exhibitor passes should be worn at all times.
13. Exhibitors should familiarise themselves with the location of emergency exits and fire fighting equipment within the hall. Please read the emergency procedures material which will be included in your exhibitor's kit, available from the organisers office during build-up. All security risks should be reported to the organisers office.
- 14.
15. The exhibition Regulations and Conditions printed on the back of the Application for Space Form apply. Your attention is drawn to Paragraph Two of your Application for Space Form which requires that written permission from the organisers must be obtained before you sublet any part of your stand.
16. No food, beverage or confectionery may be sold from stands without the prior written agreement of the organisers and The RDS. A fee may be charged.
17. Children under the age of 16 years are not permitted within the complex during construction or dismantling of any event.
18. All items for sale must be priced and charged in Euros including Irish VAT.
19. All products for sale must be E.C. approved.
20. Exhibitors may not distribute any material which relates to the products or service supplied by another exhibitor. Exhibitors may not approach visitors in the gangways if this interferes with the rights or promotional efforts of another exhibitor.
21. Exhibitors may not attend seminars presented by other exhibitors.
22. Exhibitors agree that they will only promote products or services which they are legally entitled to promote and will make clear to visitors any challenges to their legal right to sell or promote their products or services.
23. Any accident, incident, injury, theft or other loss must be reported immediately to the manager in the organisers office
24. No helium balloons or other floating objects may be distributed to visitors without the consent of the organisers.
25. All exhibitors selling and/or advertising electrical and electronic equipment (EEE) undertake to comply with the Waste Management (Waste Electrical and Electronic Equipment) (WEEE) Regulations, SI 340 of 2005.
Note: Your stand maybe inspected for compliance with the WEEE Regulations by the relevant regulatory authority. Further information on your obligations may be found at www.epa.ie or by phoning Lo Call 1890 33 55 99

Special Requirement for Bike Show:

Petrol must be removed from all exhibits before they are brought into the hall. Once on display all batteries must be disconnected.

All bikes will be inspected by the organisers and a tag placed on all bikes that are compliant to facilitate easy inspection by the fire authorities who regularly inspect consumer shows at the RDS.

No motors, engines or power driven machinery may be operated at the event other than approved and schedule demonstrations and competitions.

SDL Exhibitions Ltd

ALL BIKES MUST HAVE PETROL TANKS EMPTIED AND BATTERIES DISCONNECTED

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR EXHIBITORS DISTRIBUTING FOOD AND BEVERAGE
PRODUCTS FOR SAMPLING AT AN EVENT
CAROLE NASH IRISH MOTORBIKE & SCOOTER SHOW 2019

1. RDS Rules and Regulations

The Organiser is bound by the RDS Premises Rules and Regulations which state .....‘The Society retains the sole rights for the sale or distribution of any article of food, drink or tobacco through such catering contractor or contractors as the Society may nominate from time to time’.

2. Need for Sampling.

The RDS recognises the need for marketing and sampling product at exhibitions and in this regard is happy to allow free sampling in a controlled and approved manner.

3. Notice.

The Organiser of an Event must advise and receive approval from the RDS Hospitality Services Manager for any exhibit that will be distributing free food or beverage product at the event, on the appropriate application form.

4. Sizes.

The following maximum sample sizes only will be permitted and they must be served FOC:

- Soft and Hot Drinks -50ml (1.75fl oz.)
- Beers/Ciders - 50ml (1.75fl oz.)
- Wine/Fortified Wine/Champagne/ Alcopops and similar – 25ml (0.9fl oz.)
- Spirits and similar - 5ml (0.18fl oz.)
- ‘Bite size’ portions of food with individual cocktail sticks if required.
- Individually wrapped items.

5. Health and Safety.

It is the responsibility of the organiser to ensure that exhibitors comply with all matters of Health and Safety as required by law and any requirements of the HSE Environmental Health Officer.

6. No charge.

Sample portions will be distributed free of charge.

7. Exit Samples.

Samples of products in portions bigger than those listed at point 4 above, may be distributed to visitors as they leave the event, on the understanding that these samples may not be consumed on site. This would apply to ‘Goodie Bags’ containing a variety of free products distributed at some events.

8. Alcohol.

If sampling alcoholic beverage, the exhibitor must ensure that samples are not distributed to those under 18 years of age. Proof of age must be produced where necessary. If there is doubt about the customer’s age and no proof of age is available, then samples must not be given. Only 1 sample portion per customer may be distributed at any event. Any necessary licence requirement in this regard, is the responsibility of the organiser.

9. Breach of Conditions.

Should an organiser or exhibitor breach these Terms and Conditions, the RDS will have the offending exhibit/s cease carrying on business at the event, in whatever manner it deems appropriate.

10. Application.

An application is made subject to the RDS ‘Terms and Conditions for Exhibitors Distributing Food and Beverage Products at an Event’ and the ‘RDS Premises Rules and Regulations’.
